SCHOOL NEWS Dear All, The Summer term here is very busy! Our wonderful year 6 are preparing for SATs test. The test show academic achievement. We are very proud of how the children have grown as people, how they have come to know Christ and how they are growing into people who can change the world and make it a better place. Our year 3 children, along with children of the parish will be receiving the sacrament of Holy Communion over the weekend of 19th and 20th of May, they have been preparing all year and are very excited. We have welcomed a new business manager Mrs Mathews and a new finance admin assistant Miss Cawthorne to our school family and they are settling well, helping us to provide the very best that we can for our children. We have held our first meeting for new parents and carers and we look forward to the new children joining us in September. Also we will be celebrating the Royal Wedding with a street party and lots of bunting! Please do remember us all in your prayers. Charlotte Culleton.
