Introduction to the Liturgy: As we approach the first day of summer, we hear readings today that are set in nature. Ezekiel has a vision of God cutting a tender shoot from the top of a cedar and planting it on a lofty mountain where it grows into a majestic tree. Mark relates two of Jesus' parables involving sowing seeds, one being the tiny mustard seed, which grows into a shady, hearty plant. As we listen to today's readings, may the Lord's word take root in us. For the gifts that God offers us we can respond in the words of the Psalm: It is good to give you thanks.
