SCHOOL NEWS Invitation to the re-dedication of our school statue and school cross on Friday 15th June at 2.00pm. We at Saint Francis School are very blessed with the close relationship we have with our Parents and our Parish community. Our families and our community support us in many ways from attending school events, fund raising, donations and keeping us in their prayers. Recently we have refurbished the entrance to school and have relocated a beautiful work of art showing Jesus welcoming little children. The art work by Carmel Cauchi which has been lovingly restored. We have moved the beautiful Luke Tedds memorial cross into the school hall where every child can be reminded of the presence of Christ in our lives every day. On Friday 15th June Fr. Michael will bless and re dedicate these wonderful items which are visible reminders for our children to proclaim the Good News in the world today. Please do come along and join us. Charlotte Culleton.
