Parish newsletter and the new data protection law If your name or the name of a friend or relative of yours is on the parish list of prayers for those who are sick, and you would like that name to remain on the list, would you please contact Fr Waraich. We need to make sure that you or your friend or family member has consented to their name being on that list. This is because the list can be seen by a lot of people, the newsletter is available for anyone to pick up in church and is also published on the Rugby Deanery website. From September, the list will be restarted with the names of all for whom the parish have consent. Also, when you request a Mass intention, please provide consent for names to be included in the Parish newsletter. The Parish will not store names except on the printed newsletter. This is necessary to make sure the church takes proper care of your information and complies with current data protection law

Don't worry if the box has not been able to get to your parish as you can still send in your petitions. Either write them on a piece of paper and hand into your parish priest or email lianne.pap@rc-birmingham.org by August 19th. Petitions can be for yourself, family, and friends	Safeguarding Review Archbishop Bernard Longley has commissioned a review of the Archdiocese current safeguarding/child protection practices considering the National Catholic Policies and Procedures. This review is to be welcomed as a means of ensuring that our systems to protect our children and young people are as effective as possible. The review is being conducted by an independent charity called SCIE (Social Care Institute for Excellence). As part of the review, SCIE would like to speak with any individuals who have had experience with any safeguarding issues within the Archdiocese and have experience of working with our parish safeguarding representatives and the safeguarding team at the Archdiocese. Anyone who is impacted by abuse issues can contact the safeguarding team on 0121 230 6240 (emergency out of hours 07976 516629). If you can contribute to this important review and share your experiences with SCIE then please contact Hugh Constant by email Hugh.Constant@scie.org.uk phone 020 7766 7374 or 07872 602207.
