Items can be placed in the Chinthowa box found in the church porch	Chinthowa Development Trust News It has been a good year, rice grew successfully for the first time and two boreholes were constructed in local villages, this is the first time they will have clean water. The Primary School has 1,000 pupils and the IT Block has been completed and fitted with solar panels because there is no electricity in the village. Eight of the Secondary School pupils will go onto college and university to study computer science, electronics, bricklaying, carpentry and train as teachers. Thank you to the parishioners of St Anne's and St. Joseph's for all your support. We are very grateful. Margaret and Brain Ingram
Message from the Archdiocese of Birmingham: IICSA hearing in London 12-16th November The Archdiocese believes that the work being done by IICSA is of great significance and supports the aim of strengthening and improving safeguarding practices and cultures within the Church. The welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults is a fundamental priority for the Archdiocese. Fostering a culture which has safeguarding at its very heart remains a key part of our work. If you would like to speak to someone about safeguarding and the Church's work, please call 0121 230 6240. If you would like to speak to someone independent of the Church you can contact the NSPCC on 0808 800 5000. Please pray with us for all victims of abuse, and for all those involved in the work of this important Inquiry.
