DEANERY VISITATION

Every so often we are visited by the Bishops of the Archdiocese. They come as Apostles of Jesus Christ to affirm the communion of the Church and encourage us to mission. Bishop William Kenny will be visiting Our Lady's on the weekend of 23/24th February 2019. The proposed schedule will be....

Saturday evening Mass at 6pm (either before or after.. Meeting with all leaders of various groups within the parish)

Sunday: Masses at 9.15 and 11.00am followed by a celebration Lunch and the opportunity for everyone to meet with His Lordship... this might include a representation of our cultural diversity, with dancing music and food....

Help is welcomed from anyone who can help on the day with setting up and bringing food. We welcome food from ALL Nationalities...Spain, India, Ireland, Poland just to name a few. Any dancers able to show their skills....Indian, Irish, Polish, Spanish.....etc. Also it would be nice if anyone has any musical skills they would like to share with us.

If you can help with ANYTHING at all please add your name to the lists at the back of church so we can show our diversity.

CHURCH OPENING

Due to the constant stealing in Church it is now necessary to lock the Church outside of Mass times. However, the glass doors at the back of the Church are being fitted with locks which will enable us to have the back door open all day. So you can still see into the Church and say prayers
