As people of faith, we’re determined to speak up for our common home, and over 100 like-minded organisations – members of The Climate Coalition will be there speak to our politicians and make our voices heard. Politicians will only increase their ambition if they see that we care. They will act if their constituents tell them that they want change. Further details on the CAFOD website. On Saturday 29 June in Birmingham City Centre there will be the ‘No Planet B’ Ecumenical Environmental Conference. This will be a moving day exploring the impact of climate change on communities around the world and how we can take action in our churches, communities and as individuals, to protect the beautiful world we already have. A vegan lunch will be provided and an exciting array of workshops, Please do bring a donation on the day if you are able to. If an average of £15 per person is received, this will help to cover food, refreshments and speaker expenses. Any donations would be gratefully received. Spaces are still available.
