FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Year of the Word The God Who Speaks

Fifth Sunday of Lent (Ezekiel 37:12-14 Romans 8:8-11 John 11:1-45)
The Lord will lead us back together

Ezekiel's words apply to us when we are going through tough times in our relationship, when intimacy, physical or otherwise, seems impossible. At such times, Jesus weeps for us as He did for Lazarus. He will bring us back together if we ask Him and are willing to be vulnerable enough to explore together the changes we need to make.

Next Week's Gospel Reading Palm Sunday Matthew 27:14-27:66

[...] Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole company of soldiers around him. They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him, and then twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on his head. They put a staff in his right hand. Then they knelt in front of him and mocked him. "Hail, king of the Jews!" they said. They spit on him, and took the staff and struck him on the head again and again. After they had mocked him, they took off the robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away to crucify him. As they were going out, they met a man from Cyrene, named Simon, and they forced him to carry the cross. They came to a place called Golgotha (which means "the place of the skull"). There they offered Jesus wine to drink, mixed with gall; but after tasting it, he refused to drink it. When they had crucified him, they divided up his clothes by casting lots. And sitting down, they kept watch over him there. [...]

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

When our human nature feels weighed down by grief...we shall find in this divine light great solace...Oh, how the light of faith changes the way we see things!

Blessed Antonio Rosmini

Organ Recitals on Saturday 6th June and Saturday 4th July we are planning to hold organ recitals in church from 4pm-5pm. More details to follow, please do let others know to keep the dates free so that the church is packed!

HOPE Together Here we have lots of info about how to serve local communities with practical action and words of hope. Social media can also be a useful tool in this crisis. We are posting a series of 'Reasons for Hope' and ideas to 'Help bring Hope' over the coming weeks. Do repost them to help counter fear with offers of help and hope.

'For I am the Lord your God who takes hold of your right hand and says to you, Do not fear; I will help you (Isaiah 41:13).

For our sisters and brothers around the world, we pray ...
Let us pray together for doctors, hospital staff and volunteers who are giving their own lives to save others. And for civil leaders, for those who have to make decisions at this time. All these people are the pillars defending us in this crisis ... The God of tenderness will heal us of all life's wounds and of all the bad things we have done. Returning to God means returning to an embrace, the embrace of the Creator.
(Pope Francis)
