| Masses and Liturgy this week Fr Matthew will be saying Mass privately each day during the week. He will also say one Mass at English Martyrs during the week. In this way he will continue to pray for all of you each day at the Altar. Please email him if you have any specific prayer requests or Mass intentions. Clothes Bank- For those near the Church, the Clothes bank is still open. Fr Matthew is currently emptying it and placing the items in the parish room until the shop opens again. | Church Open Times At present the Church is closed following government advice. You can still access via the keysafe if you need to get in. Ascension Day- This Thursday is Ascension Day. Fr Matthew will say Mass on this important Feast Day. Thank you to those who have been sharing the lawn moving over the last few weeks. |
| The Bells . The bells have continued to ring as a sign of the Church's presence. Each Thursday evening a tune plays at 8pm. The Angelus rings each day at 12noon and 6pm and we rang them for VE day. It is a simple way of saying that the Church is still alive during these times. Thank you to Ian O'Hara who is now programming these for us. | St Joseph' UCM of are praying together, again, on Friday of this week and invite all to join in. In our own homes, we will be praying the UCM prayers, a decade of the rosary, meditating on the mystery of the Ascension , and Pope Francis' prayer, written specifically for this covid crisis. We are repeating this from two weeks ago with the focus on a different mystery of the rosary. If you live with a UCM member then they should have the prayers from last time, so please do join in with them. If you would like a special intention added to the prayers please let me know well in advance so I can circulate this. Contact me on lizcrosskey@aol.com Otherwise all the prayers are dedicated to our parish family, who we are all missing so much at the moment. We pray for their health and safety and happiness and that we will be able to meet in person, to pray together again soon. |
