Parish website- www.monkskirbystjoseph.org

Masses and Liturgy this week Mass will be said each weekday in Church. Please email Fr Matthew with any prayer requests to be prayed at the altar. Thank you- to all who have helped with the very complicated arrangements for opening the church, especially, James Crosskey and Chris McKee who have helped with the risk assessment, planning and paperwork required by the Archdiocese Patricia, Ben and Alice Ashman- who spend most of Thursday afternoon deep cleaning the church. R.J Courney and Sons for the provision of all the required equipment and cleaning products The Stewards who have volunteered for each of the sessions Many other churches have decided not to open and it is a credit to these volunteers that we are able to offer this to our parish and community	Church Opening times Tues 10:30-11:30 Friday 18:30-20:00 Sun 9:00-11am There will be two stewards at these times to help manage the arrangements in place. There will no longer be access via the keysafe at this time. Please access the church only at these times, even if you are a keyholder The two sessions so far have gone well with people taking the opportunity to pray in the Church.
Clothes Bank- Staff from the shop in Rugby are now emptying the clothes bank in the Church car park. Any donations of clothing items would be gratefully received. Items for notice Sheet-If you have any news please email Fr Matthew before Friday.	Prayer Requests (from UCM)-WE PRAY FOR: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Lucy Warner, continued prayers please -John Teeling, Simone's Dad, who is very poorly Terri Frankin- Who is in hospital -Our parishioners who live at Town Thornes: John Fletcher, Maxine and Greg Hession, Colleen Catesby, Veronica Goldberg. -Any other sick or housebound known to us -Any one still self shielding through this time -Those who have lost employment recently -Those dealing with sudden changes in work patterns and income -Those looking for our starting new jobs -All those who work in the NHS, whatever their capacity, but especially those working with covid 19 patients. -All those who work in care homes or work caring for people in their own homes, including the catering and cleaning staff, the managers as well as the care and nursing staff -Essential workers, who have continued to deliver services as normal at risk to themselves right through the covid 19 pandemic, such delivery drivers, supermarket workers, agricultural and horticultural workers, frontline charity key workers, those who work in funeral services, those who work in the justice system or delivering essential public services and financial services.

-As schools have started to go back this week we pray for all teachers, lecturers, teaching assistants, premises officers, cleaners and administration staff, who have worked right through this crisis and now continue to find new ways to work for the best of our children and young people.

-We pray for each other; for all the parish of St Joseph, for Fr Matthew and for our friends and relations.

LORD, in thy mercy,
HEAR OUR PRAYER.
