What will you do in 2022 to care for creation?

A message from the Laudato Si' Movement

As part of your New Year's resolutions, consider some ways to improve yourself while caring for God's creation:

Volunteer: find one day a week (or month) to give your time in service to those who need it most.

Exercise more and balance your diet with vegetables: you'll help the environment by biking and walking and cutting out meat at least once a week.

Create a weekly routine of prayer in nature: so, you don't forget it, better to schedule it. Schedule a "meeting with God and creation" every week.

Connect with others: don't let your obligations make you neglect your family and friends

Become the person God wants you to be: take time to discern your vocation and the right path of God's plan for your life.

READ THE WHOLE BIBLE!

Please consider joining the thousands of others, who are following the Bible in a Year podcast with Fr Mike Schmitz. Read the whole Bible in a year using Jeff Cavins bible time line. Listen for 20-25 minutes each day. Hear the story of salvation like never before and receive brilliant Catholic teaching. <https://ascensionpress.com/pages/biy-registration>
